Supervisor Comments

Bag Drive: Refund information is being compiled by the business office to insure that proper reimbursements are made to residents of the Township. Unfortunately, lists provided by Wyoming Valley Sanitary Authority and Lower Lackawanna Sanitary Authority contain inaccurate information which has to be revised and confirmed.

Yard Waste:

Beginning June 1, 2020 the alternate week schedule in the handout will be in effect. Hopefully, by that time, the Governor will ease some of the restrictions and our road department can be called back to full time employment.

Road Department

Mr. Bonita and Supervisor Slezak visited a potential location for a salt shed and garage located in the Suscon Area. Supervisors Slezak has been asking for a salt shed in the Suscon area which would reduce unnecessary road trips for salt and possible reduce overtime. There is a possibility of leasing the premises for $1200/month + utilities.

Public comment

Bryan Giambra - Chapel Road questioned the width of Baker Road and Chapel Road. Supervisor Slezak will discuss the situation of Mike Amato. Supervisor Hawk stated that there should be a new survey and the road should be placed where it belongs.

Louiise Miller - comments (1) on traffic on Ziegler Road and (2) dumping by Keene Energy. Terry Best was asked to contact Keene energy regarding dumping. Supervisors stated that Ziegler Road is a private road and the Twp. is moving to taking the road.
